The Black Heart Orchestra
Village Hall Tour 2019

Try something new - come along and be entertained.....

The Blackheart Orchestra are coming to entertain us, they are actually a Duo and have been performing for 10 years.

They are often likened to a "miniature orchestra" as they play a large number of instruments live.

They write all their own songs and offer a combination of modern acoustic music served with a pinch of electronica and classical.

They have won several awards including Best British Duo 2014 and nominated for the prestigious Limelight Award in the 2018 progressive music awards to name a couple.
